

Join us for a JAFCO Community Tour!

You are invited to attend a 2-part informative tour to learn about JAFCO and the meaningful programs and services we provide to children in our community as well as volunteer opportunities. Tours are held on the first Wednesday of each month (excluding June, July, and August).

Part 1: 9:30 am (promptly) JAFCO Children's Village

4200 N University Drive, Sunrise, FL 33351, 954.749.7230

Providing placement, services and programs for abused, neglected and at-risk children.

Join us for a 60-minute program, visiting our Children's Emergency Shelter and one of our 6 group homes which provide a safe loving home to fifty children in our community. Learn about foster care, adoption, family preservation programs and services, and how you can become involved.

Part 2: 11:00 am (promptly) Children's Ability Center

5100 N Nob Hill Road, Sunrise, FL 33351, 954.315.7033

Providing family enrichment, resources and respite care to families raising children with developmental disabilities. Join us for a 60-minute program at the Children's Ability Center to learn more about our family support, child enrichment and respite programs, and how you can become involved.

For parents interested in accessing services at the Children's Ability Center, please contact JAFCO Family Support Supervisor Liz Daphna Gonsalves at 954-203-4970 or liz@jafco.org.

For those interested in volunteering, there is a 2-hour volunteer orientation that will be scheduled after your tour by RSVP only.

For more information or to RSVP, please contact JAFCO Community Outreach Coordinator Jeannette Cohen at 754-422-7241 or jeannette@eagleshaven.org.
