

SNOW, SONGS, AND SMILES AT JAFCO

JAFCO programs celebrated Chanukah Thursday evening with a festive event sponsored by Plantation residents Julie and Howard Talenfeld.

Sunrise, FL – December 24, 2025 – Dozens of foster children living at JAFCO Children’s Village, including children who have been adopted or placed in foster care through JAFCO programs, celebrated Chanukah Thursday evening with a festive event sponsored by Plantation residents Julie and Howard Talenfeld. The Talenfelds have supported this celebration for over a decade, reflecting their family’s love for JAFCO and dedication to bringing joy to children in foster care.

The celebration included a large snow mound, menorah lighting, a DJ, sufganiyot, and speeches. Approximately 250 children, families, staff, clients, and members of the JAFCO and Foundation Boards attended the event. Fifteen tons of snow were brought in for the children to enjoy.

“We are so happy to have the opportunity to put smiles on the children’s faces at JAFCO. It’s a wonderful tradition celebrating with a snow fight,” said Julie and Howard Talenfeld, JAFCO supporters for years.

The event provided an opportunity for the children to experience the joy of Chanukah in a fun and festive setting, complete with latkes and other traditional Chanukah fare. Through the wonderful donations of JAFCO supporters, these children can live in a beautiful, safe environment with round-the-clock tender loving care.
